Cardamom

Featuring scratch cooking from fresh ingredients, Cardamom has been Ann Arbor's "Fresh Indian" restaurant in the Courtyard Shops on Plymouth Rd. since 2013. Every dish begins with spices that are blended, ground, and roasted in house. You'll taste why HOOR Detroit magazine calls Cardamom "vibrant and distinct ... utterly fresh, sophisticated and authentic." Cardamom's full bar features craft cocktails that are Indian-inspired twists on classic cocktails made with fresh and house-made ingredients, such as the popular Cardamom Old Fashioned. The wine and beer list has been carefully curated for pairing with Indian food—not an easy task! Owner-operator and long-time Ann Arborite Binod Dhakal is on site most nights. With meat, vegetarian, vegan, and no-gluten dishes available, there is something for everyone.

Miss Kim

Located in the heart of the Kerrytown district, Miss Kim aims to be a fun and easy place for all to dine with enthusiastic, informative, and warm service. Because they're always asked, the name was chosen for both its reference to the most recognizable Korean last name and the restaurant's female chef-owner. Managing Partner, Chef Ji Hye Kim, grew up in Seoul, South Korea, where her mother made everything from scratch and the seasons decided what they ate. She turns to ancient cookbooks to translate Korean culinary tradition to the terroir of Michigan. Chef Ji Hye Kim was recognized as one of Food & Wine's Best New Chefs and a James Beard Award semifinalist for both Outstanding Chef and Great Lakes Chef.
